Dear Mr. Robson,-

Following my conversation with you yesterday over the telephone about Mrs. Tregarneth's Picture, No. 195 (Red Roofs) at the Canadian National Exhibition, which she offered to give without compensation to the Toronto Art Gallery, I wrote to her last night giving her your address and asking her to write you. I told her also that the picture was being held out pending receipt of her offer, and that she could instruct the Exhibition authorities to deliver the picture to the Art Gallery. I expect you will hear from her in due course.

Thanking you for your courtesy in this matter, and with best personal regards,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Robson,-

The artist, of whom I spoke to you on the telephone this morning, is Mrs. Anita Tregarneth, whose address is the Empress Club, 35 Dover Street, London, W.1, England.

Mrs. Tregarneth was a passenger on the ship on which I returned from England recently, and she told me she had two watercolours entered at the Exhibition, Nos. 194 and 195. She said that she thought No. 194 was sold, but that the other one was much the better picture, having been accepted by the Royal Academy and the Paris Salon. Then she added,-

> "Do you think there would be any chance of the "Toronto Art Gallery accepting the picture in "question (Red Roofs)? I would be quite content "to dispense with any fee as that is not of "primary importance, but I should be so proud "to hang in a Canadian Gallery."

If you will look at the picture and let me know the decision, I shall be much obliged.

Yours sincerely,

A E Matthews
