C.B.M galleries is a small flat pack exhibition space. Exhibitions for one, two, three people.

Long story short...ish. Whilst on a residency I'd waited a while to get sorted, the day I start the world ends, fun times. I had planned to make a large flat pack gallery as a response to the fact that its bloody hard for students and emerging artists to get shows and to travel the country with it. Since that's a no go for now, I decided to make a miniature version.

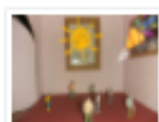

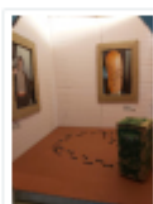

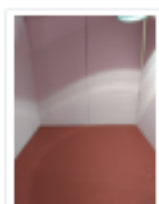

The dimensions for this highly prestigious establishment are 15cm x 15cm floor, walls are 15cm wide x 18-22cm high.

I am making a list of people so that I can match up to three people for each show.

You can either send photos over and I will print them out on a mini printer, make a picture or sculpture and I will recreate it, send me instructions on how to make something, or last but not least send me a link to a video to either show on a screen or project into the space.

Shows are held on Sundays.
